

P. Terenti Afri Comoediae: The Comedies of Terence; Edited with Introduction and Notes (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from P. Terenti Afri Comoediae: The Comedies of Terence; Edited With Introduction and Notes I wish to express my gratitude to friends who have aided me. To Professor Harold W. Johnston of the Indiana University I owe the suggestion in which the book originated, as well as other suggestions which were helpful while the manuscript was in course of preparation. To Professors Gonzalez Lodge and Charles Knapp of Columbia University I am under deep obligation for encouragement and assistance ungrudgingly bestowed while the book was passing through the press. Professor Lodge has read the larger part of the proofs and has made many important corrections and suggestions. Professor Knapp has read the proofs throughout, and in doing so has given both the Introduction and the Notes a careful revision. His extensive familiarity with Plautine and Terentian usage, his constructive scholarship, and his discriminating criticism have been continually at my service from the time when the first proof sheets were received from the press, more than two and a half years ago. To his corrections and additions the book owes much of any value it may be found to possess. Lastly I must express my appreciation of the efforts of the proprietors of the Riverside Press to have the book both becomingly and accurately printed.
