

The Promise

The beginning of the Great War. The first practising Jew ever to sit in Cabinet dreams of using British power to return the Jews to Palestine after 1800 years. His cousin - also in Cabinet - is implacably opposed to the idea, a conflict complicated by his passion for the beautiful aristocrat Venetia Stanley, a confidante of the prime minister, Herbert Henry Asquith. Politics, love, and religion collide with world-changing effect in this new play.
