

Little Boy Lost: Talking to Angels, Book Three (Volume 3)

In this exciting conclusion to the Talking to Angels trilogy, Andy Quinn is finally ready to graduate from UMass Boston and begin a career as a teacher. After surviving both a serial killer and an obsessed stalker, he settles into what he hopes will be a quiet family life with Glen and his daughter. However, the angels never leave him alone for long, and Andy is once again caught in the grip of night terrors that he knows will come true. This time, its even worse. This time, he sees Glen die a brutal, violent death, and to his horror, its by Andys own hand. He knows he couldnt possibly kill the man hes come to love, but his visions are never wrong. In desperation, Andy seeks outside help from another psychic who may or may not be trustworthy. But Andy sees no other choice. He must either trust someone to help him understand his visions, or face the possibility of coldly murdering his fiance.
