FREE Erotica! FREE for Kindle Unlimited and Kindle Prime Members. Jenny and I decided to spend a couple of weeks of our summer break at Ocean City, N.J., hanging out at the beach, the boardwalk, maybe doing some shopping. So Im not entirely sure how the two of us ended up under the board walk, three guys pounding away at us, literally thousands of people walking back and forth just inches away while these three guys had their way in absolutely every imaginable way with the two of us. All I know is that the ringleader, a guy named Lawrence, had this way about him he was funny and smart, and it turns out has a real thing for being dominant and well, you can imagine what he does. And I loved every second of it. Craved moreand he promises to give me moreand now you can read along as he does with just a single click All characters in this book are at least 19 years of age. Want a sample? Here ya go The next day seemed to go on forever. We went down to the beach and hung out for several hours, but I have to confess all I could think about was LawrenceI felt almost like I was in a state of constant arousal The sun was hot on us today, and I even found myself looking at Jenny differently, becoming just a little aroused at the sight of the sun glistening off of her sweaty, sun-screen-covered body. Jenny is dark-haired, with long flowing hair (though its up in a ponytail today) and darkly tanned skin during the day, when shes in the sun it starts to look a little red, but it just turns darker once shes out of the sun. Shes taller than me, and slender, while I have dirty blonde hair and am more fair-skinned. I tend to turn a light golden color during the summer, and Im as golden as Ive ever been since Jenny and I decided to spend a couple of weeks here, in Ocean City. Im a little curvier than Jenny not overweight, but with definite hips, larger breasts, and a tight little bubble-butt. Finally its time for Jenny and I to head back and get ready to meet Lawrence again. I have no idea what he could have in store for us. This was just a taste. Come back tomorrow night, Ill blow your mind. Both of you. That last thing he said to us had been running through my mind all day. What more could he do? Was he going to go all Christian Grey on us and pull out the whips and blindfolds? I wouldnt be opposed to that, although I honestly had never seen the appeal. Then again, Id never wanted to be submissive before last night, never really expected to have sex with a complete and total stranger. Until last night. We run back to our place, shower then to dinner. I dont eat much Im too nervous, trying to dream up what Lawrence might have in store. Finally, after an agonizingly long evening, some of the boardwalk shops closed their doors, the lights began winking out, and Jenny and I headed for the sand, slipping under the boardwalk where hed taken us last night. Lawrence told us hed get off work at ten oclock tonight and hed be there by 10:30, that we should be waiting for him. We arrived at 10:15 and he was already waiting...
