Excerpt: ... Second Department, October, 1915. Vol. 17a different from that exercised by the Governor in removing county officials (Public Officers Law, 32), as the Executive is not under such limitation as to the ground for removal. As the amended petition sets up acts prior to election, and not misconduct in office, no case is made for the action of this court. Demurrer by respondent is, therefore, sustained, and application for his removal dismissed, with costs. Present--Jenks, P. J., Carr, Mills, Rich and Putnam, JJ. In the Matter of Harry Cook, an Attorney.--Respondent suspended from practice for a period of six months from the entry of the order herein. Present--Jenks, P.
