

The Forced Femme Village : A Forced Feminization Femdom Fantasy

The Forced Femme Village : A Forced Feminization Femdom Fantasy Roy and Dennis have been invited to a party, in Dennis case by a girl he met on Facebook. She was very keen on learning all about him and only seemed more interested in him when it turned out he didnt have any ties and wouldnt be missed if he vanished. At the party it seems strangely quiet, but when beautiful girls offer the boys a drink it would seem rude to refuse. The next thing our heros know they are waking up on an jet, being monitored by two young attractive nurses. Why have they been abducted? Where exactly are they now landing? All becomes clear eventually, as they are brought before the sinister selection board of an all-female community which has abducted them with only one intention, to chemically transform them into feminized sissy slaves, to be auctioned off to the highest bidder once their transformation is complete. Not all of the boys offer as much resistance to this treatment. They find themselves feeling helpless, terrified, and humiliated at the hands of their merciless captors. Can they escape the clutches of these women before theyve been sterilized and undergone a thorough forced feminization regime? The forced feminization is powerful and irreversible, they resist the forced femme treatment as long as they can, only time will tell whether they they resist it indefinitely. Warning This story contains adult themes of female domination, femdom, forced feminization and forced femme. It is only suitable for those over 18 years of age. This story was inspired by the works of Sabrina Jen Mountford and is of a similar theme. If these topics offend you please do not buy. It is also pure fantasy with no attempts to maintain realism, if you are looking for realistic - please look elsewhere.
