

The Explosive Games (The Holloway saga Book 8)

David and Trisha Holloway run two successful businesses and are a very happy couple - or rather happy quartet, because in the course of previous adventures David has managed to acquire two more unofficial wives. Over the previous couple of years there have been a number of accidents and blatant attacks on their lives. The author of these is suddenly revealed when Trisha is kidnapped (for the third time in her eventful life) by Leila, the wife of a criminal who had been responsible for two previous attacks on the couple in an attempt to blackmail or ransom them. This attack is different; a DVD is sent to David showing Trisha being tortured in front of a BDSM club, a mixed group of people all masked, who had paid highly to watch her being tormented and under the impression that she is a masochist and all the torture is consensual. Leila announces to David that she will repeat this production once a week until Trisha is dead or insane. She does not want money, simply revenge for David's killing of her husband. With no contact but the delivery of the DVD by Royal Mail and no demand for ransom there is very little hope of finding Trisha and rescuing her.
